Mr. Francis Swarbrick
Religious Studies and Philosophy

1st June 2010

To whom it may concern,

I write in testimony for Maulana Fazal Hassan of ThinkBRITE Services, who delivered a lecture on 'Islam, Marriage and Family' as part of our Religious Education programme for Year 13 students.

I was very impressed by his professionalism as he was clearly well prepared with relevant Powerpoint presentations, confident in his delivery and knowledgeable about the topic. He made excellent use of the available time, including a challenging question and answer session at the end which he dealt with in a very calm and skilful manner.

I found Maulana Hassan most friendly and personable, and I would be more than happy to use him again and to recommend him to other colleges and professional groups. If you require any further information please feel free to telephone the college or to email me on franswarb@hotmail.com.

Yours faithfully,

Mr. Francis Swarbrick B.A. M.Ed.
